

West Alabama Bank

It's your bank.™

April 6, 2020

To Our Valued West Alabama Bank Customers,

Thank you for your continued patience, understanding and cooperation during these unprecedented circumstances. As you know, Alabama is currently under a Stay-at-Home order. We want to assure you that banks are essential businesses and our West Alabama Bankers are here to serve you.

Our drive-thru windows remain open during normal business hours to serve you. If you need access to our lobby, please contact your local office. The health and safety of our customers and employees is our top priority and we are committed to protecting all of those around us. As a reminder, we offer several ways to access your accounts and meet your banking needs without visiting a branch. Visit our website wabt.com to learn more about our many convenient services.

Despite the uncertainty and confusion of these trying days, we know that we will overcome this challenge together. We appreciate your business and please know that we are here for you today and in all the better days ahead!

Yours truly,
